Youth Club on the move...

As you will see from the separate article, the new Youth Club building has been successfully installed. Congratulations to the Leaders and Committee, this is a fantastic achievement.

Village of the Year judging

The Community Centre hosted displays for over forty local groups and organisations as part of the judge's visit. The judges were very impressed with the building, its facilities and the many activities available for local people.

Wickham Summer Play Scheme

Booking forms are now available from the Community Centre.

Places are starting to fill already so be sure to book early.

Do you have views on what happens at the Community Centre or any ideas to help with the running and management?

AGM 8pm Thursday 22nd May

All welcome to attend

Wickham Annual Parish Assembly

The main hall was filled to bursting point for the Annual Parish Assembly. The event was a great celebration of community activities many of which take place at the Community Centre.
